If you are a member of an Association Congregation, put your name on the bottom of this paragraph and present it to your pastor. His signature indicates that you are an active member of your home congregation, faithful in your attendance at church and communion, and supportive of the church's program. If you have not exhibited a Christian life within your home congregation, the church is certainly justified in withholding such recognition and authorization.

PASTOR

This student has enrolled at Faith Lutheran High School. Your congregation is supporting FLHS with its finances and prayers as an extension of its mission to "bring up the children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." One of FLHS's goals is to encourage active home congregational participation among the students. By signing this document, you are indicating that the student either has satisfactorily exhibited his/her Christian commitment within the home parish, or has given firm resolve to do so within the near future. Your signature indicates that the student is entitled to the tuition discount. It is felt that requiring each student to contact you to obtain this signature will serve as an asset to our mutual ministry.

I verify that the above named student should be considered an active member of our congregation and entitled to the tuition discount.
